ADDITIONAL WRITTEN COMMENTS OF DON SCHELLHARDT, ESQUIRE AND NICKOLAUS LEGGETT

Don Schellhardt, Esquire, is a writer and attorney in Denver, Colorado. Nickolaus E. Leggett is an inventor, technical writer and analyst in Reston, Virginia. Together, we are the Petitioners for a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in Docket RM-10330.

Today, we are submitting these Additional Written Comments, after the Written Comments and Reply Comments deadlines, in order to bring new information to the attention of the Commission and commenters in this Docket.

We ask that this information be considered by the Commission, in spite of being untimely filed, because the information: (a) is relevant to this proceeding; (b) carries substantial weight; and (c) did not become available until May 21, 2002.

The information in question takes the form of an assessment, on the public record, by Donald Rumsfeld, United States Secretary of Defense:

Just facing the facts, we have to recognize that terrorists have relationships with terrorist states that have weapons of mass destruction and that they are inevitably going to get their hands on them, and they would not hesitate one minute in using them.

This declaration was made on May 21, 2002.

Respectfully submitted,

Don Schellhardt, Esquire
